a feast of symbols

See symbolic foods eaten during Rosh Hashanah

Apples and Honey • Israel being described as a "land of milk and honey" • bees can create honey and inflict pain representing the duality of life and prayer for a "sweet" year • apples form before leaves on apple trees as a symbol on apple trees as a symbol of commitment to Judaism through adversity

Round Challah Bread Challah eaten on other

Jewish holidays such as Shabbat • round shape to symbolize the circle of life and creation • some families add raisins and honev

Fish Head

• Rosh Hashanah means "head of the year"

• meant as a symbol of leadership and strength for the year

• expresses the hope that "we be a head and not a tail."

Pomegranate

• 613 seeds in a pomegranate matching the number of mitzvah (commandments) in the Torah • symbolizes the mitzvot creating many merits in the coming year